'Pop art' in Hartnell gallery, includes Warhol creations

This is Andy Warhol's "2 Jackies" now in display at Hartnell's Art Gallery. The Gallery is open days from 8 am-5 pm and from 7 pm to 10 pm.

From the late 50's, the art movement that was considered a culture shock by the critics and labeled "pop art" is in part represented by the exhibit now inside of the Hartnell Gallery.

The contributors to the scene have brought sensationalism of television and magazine ads, the comic strip and world figures to mingle in today's museums with yesteryear's classics.

Warhol's "2 Jackies", Lichtenstein's "Sweet Dreams Baby", and Wesselman's "Cut-Out Nude", and Californian Mel Ramos' "Miss Com Cream" are a few of the pieces on display until Feb. 28.

Stone's Weekly at M.P.C.

A superb and loving documentary on journalist I.F. Stone will be shown on Sunday, Feb. 17, inside the Monterey inside the Monterey Peninsula College Theater.

Starting times are 7:30, 9 and a 10:20 showing that will only cost $1 for each person holding a valid student body card.

Basketballers meet MPC, lose to Menlo

By Tom Cherne

The basketball team saw a crushing blow delivered to their state playoff chances last Saturday night, as the powerful Menlo Oaks crushed the Hart's 72-52 at Menlo. The loss leaves the Panthers with an 8-2 win-loss record in the Coast Conference standings and a 17-6 overall. The Oaks ranked first in the state for junior colleges, have a 10-0 mark in conference play and 21-2 overall.

As was the case with the earlier loss to Menlo, Hartnell's lack of rebounding cost them the game. The visitors grabbed only 17 rebounds in this game tilt as compared with 16 grabs for the whole night in the first meeting of the two squads. Despite this glaring weakness the Panthers still took a one point lead into the dressing room at the half (29-28) but, in the second half, the roof caved in.

Ray Canepa led the losing cause with 20 points, while Allen George was the only other Hart player to score in double figures as he had 16 points. Ken Guido was next in scoring with five points, while pivot man Dave Kendrick had four.

Ernie Pascua, Walter Allen and Mark Holaday all scored two points for the night.

Bernard Hicks closed out the offensive production with one point. Team coach Len Wilkins summed up the contest by saying "We let up on them. We didn't play a good second half. Once Menlo gets a lead on you it's hard to catch up."

In the game against Cabrillo last week the Hart's beat back a pesky Seahawk club 70-62. Kendrick paced the attack with 24 points, followed by Canepa with 16 and George with 11. Hicks, Guido and Pascua, from the backcourt, combined for the other 19 points of the Panther attack.

This Saturday at 7:30 P.M. the Hart's will be at home against arch rival M.P.C.

On the move . . .

Gymnastics . . .

A gymnastic exhibition will be given sometime in March as part of an "open house" project for the community." We hope to draw a different type of crowd that's interested in Gymnastics," said Coach Ms. Carolyn West.

Camp project . . .

A one week camp experience is being offered to those who are interested in helping sixth graders from March 24 through May 17. It is completely voluntary. There are no unit limits, and anyone can apply.

If you missed the meeting yesterday, you can find out more about it by talking to Miss Helga Buss in the main gym or by contacting Mrs. Logan, the director of the camp program.

Track

There will be a Tri-meet here when Hartnell Trackers go against Merced and West Hill at 3:30 p.m. today.

Baseball

Hartnell's baseball team defeated Merced 16-4 Feb. 7 and went onto shut-out West Hills the next day. Dave Mills and Richard Gibbons were the winning pitchers. They played Cuesta last Tuesday, winning 90-2.

Tonight will be doubleheader when Diablo Valley visits Hartnell. "They're tough. They're all tough until the end of the ninth inning. The season will be unpredictable. We'll have to pitch and play defense." Those are the remarks of Coach T Tony Te esa.

Softball

A girl's softball league will be underway sometime in March (after Spring vacation). There are 18 girls on the team. They will meet De Anza, M.P.C., San Jose City and other areas teams during their run.

Tennis

The tennis season opened at Merced last Friday. Though Hartnell came away with only 2 of the matches--the team is strong--the talent is there.

Time and consistency will alter the score. "It will be a great experience for the boys and hopefully we will have them playing their best even when we hit our conference." says Mrs. Carol Howell, varsity coach.
